

PATMOUNT FOUND IN ABANDONED HOUSE

DISCOVERED IN ABANDONED FARM HOUSE NEAR COLUMBIA, ILLINOIS.

Missing "Dry" Worker Claims He Was Kidnaped as He Was Returning From a Meeting in Westville,
March 31st But Remembers Little
That Has Happened Since Then.

St. Louis, May 23.—A man who claims to be the Rev. Louis R. Pat-mont, a prohibition advocate who has been missing since he addressed
a "dry" meeting at Westville, Ill., March 31st, was found in an abandoned farm house near Columbia,
late this afternoon.

The man was found in the house by farm hands, who were working about the place. This morning they heard cries. Opening the door they found the man lying bound on the floor.
A rag that had been placed on his mouth had been chewed loose.

The man was released but he was too weak to walk. He was so emaciated
from lack of food that he scarcely was able to talk; but when an account of the disappearance of Patmont was read to him he wept
and said:

"I am the man."
Telegrams were sent to Milwaukee,
where he said his family was staying.

The man was taken to the home
of Rev. Mr. Stringman, a Lutheran pastor at Columbia, Ill. When the rescued man had recovered sufficiently, he told, in part, the story
of his capture on the night of March 31st.

According to this story, he was kidnaped as he was returning home
from a prohibition meeting. From that time until his release he remembered little clearly. He said that he had been drugged. Of the four or five men who captured him,
two wore the uniforms of police officers.

Friday night, he said, he was brought to an abandoned farm
in an automobile. There he was tied and gagged. He worked the gag loose and called for help. His captors heard his cries and returned,
warning him to cease shouting or they would set the house on fire. The man then became quiet and no attempt was made to replace the gag.

Tattoo Marks Confirm Belief.
News of the finding of the man
who claims to be the missing Prohibition advocate was sent to Rev.
Mr. Bickel, pastor of the First Christian church of Danville, Ill. Rev.
Mr. Bickel who knew the man who disappeared from Westville, telegraphed to look on the arm of the man for a tattoo mark which might help to identify Patmont. These marks were confirming the authorities in the belief that the missing
man had been found.

Satisfied With Description.
Danville, Ill., May 23.—Rev. J. E.
Bickel, pastor of the First Church of Christ, who has had charge of the search for the Rev. Mr. Patmont
since his disappearance March 31st,
tonight stated that he had talked
with the state's attorney of Monroe
county over the long distance telephone and was satisfied from the description received, that Patmont has been found. He will leave at 2:30 a. m., accompanied by State's Attorney J. H. Lewman and Dr.
Swartz, a prominent "dry" leader,
for Columbia, to take charge of the missing minister. He said it was probable that the Rev. Mr. Pat-mont would be brought to this city
soon as he is able to travel, for the purpose of taking him before the grand jury which is now in session here.

State's Attorney Lewman says a thorough investigation of his kidnap-ing will be made.

MEDIATORS STIRRED TO UNEXPECTED ACTIVITY

MEXICANS DECLARE SITUATION
CALLS FOR PROMPT ATTENTION

The Taking of Saltillo and the Advance of Rebels Upon the Capital
Cause Mexican Delegates to Urge Prompt, Decisive Action Upon the Mediators—Many Conferences Held During Day.

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., May 23.—
The mediators here were stirred to unexpected activity today when they were advised by the Mexican delegates that the situation called for prompt and decisive action. The American delegates were notified to appear and conference after conference followed. From the moment,
shortly after noon, when it was officially announced that the first full
meeting of the delegates of both sides
was to be held later in the day until after the American delegates had gone back to the American side of the river shortly before midnight there was an atmosphere of suppressed excitement about every move made
both by mediators and by the representatives of the United States and Mexico.

Speculation and rumors of all sorts
were rife as to the exact purpose of this sudden calling together of the entire mediation body. This speculation which took a wide range was virtually set at rest when it was admitted that the moving cause for the precipitate step was the condition
in Mexico, the taking of Saltillo and the threatened advance upon the capital by the rebels. It was declared that while the situation there
could hardly be called critical yet it was grave. It was said to be the desire of the Mexican delegates to see some form of provisional government established in Mexico City before events brought about a crisis in the capital.

At the close of the day a bulletin
was issued announcing that the conference had "been held at the request of the Mexican representatives
for the purpose of informing the mediators and the American representatives of the ideas of their government concerning several interesting points for the best solution of the present difficulty." It was declared to maintain secrecy in reference to these points until a concrete solution had been reached to which
end the informal conversations
will continue.

The favorable outlook has been emphasized by results of this afternoon's conference.

Before they went into session the American delegates had no idea which of the several phases of the situation was to be broached. The meeting lasted less than half an hour
and the conversation was conducted through an interpreter. The discussion was pointed, but quite good natured, and the early adjournment was taken to enable the American delegates to confer with the authorities
at Washington. The meeting adjourned until ten o'clock tonight.

It was significant that while the views had been so divergent before
this afternoon's session as to give rise to the distinct statement that there was a "hitch", the atmosphere
was so declared at the end of the conference that a spirit of optimism
was displayed by all the participants.
It is asserted by those who should be informed that the settlement of the land question has been a vexed
problem but this matter has reached
such a stage that confidence in its ultimate adjustment is freely expressed.

The conference was in session two hours tonight. When it adjourned
the delegates said they had made substantial progress. One of those in attendance said that he believed the duration of the mediation labors
would be much shorter than they had expected.

other officials and agents of the New Haven and the Boston and

D. REES BROWNING'S USEFUL LIFE HAS COME TO ITS CLOSE

Well Known Banker Succumbed to Pneumonia Following Operation.
—Active in Jacksonville Business
Affairs For Long Period.

A man in whose life gentleness
and strength found rare expression,
passed into the Great Beyond when death came, early Saturday afternoon to D. Rees Browning, vice-president of the Farmers State Bank & Trust Company. Mr. Browning was operated on last Monday and subsequently pneumonia developed. His condition became alarming Friday afternoon and although there was some improvement that night, Saturday he sank rapidly until the end of his life's journey was reached.

Mr. Browning was the last male descendant of his branch of the Browning family. The family history is one of the proudest in the annals of the states and began on American soil when Capt. John Browning came from England to Elizabeth City, Virginia in 1622.
About 1775 Capt. James Browning became a resident of Kentucky and it was from him that the family
sprang which has been prominently identified with the history of that state. Orville Hickman Browning,
an uncle of the deceased, was appointed United States senator by
Gov. Yates to succeed Stephen A.
Douglas and afterward in President Johnson's cabinet he served as attorney general and Secretary of the Interior.

Although proud of his family
name and history D. Rees Browning was modest and retiring to a marked
degree and his estimate of real aristocracy was only that of character. He was a son of Marcus Elliott and Evangeline Rees Browning and he was born in Lexington, Ky. After completing his course in Transylvania University he studied law
in the office of Judge Buckner in Lexington. In 1873 he came to Jacksonville, made his home with his uncle, Dr. Lloyd Brown, and his prominent connection with the business life of Jacksonville began as teller of the Central Illinois Bank & Savings Association. After this bank went out of existence Mr. Browning was for several years assistant postmaster and then for a period devoted his time largely to his farming interests. Subsequently he became vice president of the Ayers National Bank and afterward joined with A.
L. French and others in the organization of the Farmers State Bank & Trust Company, holding the office of
vice president and trust officer with that bank at the time of his death.

With passing years Mr. Browning
made large investments in farm
lands mainly in the vicinity of Island
Grove and he had active supervision of the farming operations
there. In addition to his private and bank affairs Mr. Browning has held various positions of responsibility mainly in connection with the settlement of estate matters. He was a man of conservative and exceptional business judgment and for these reasons his advice was often sought.

For a great many years Mr.
Browning has been a member of Central Christian church and had long served as a member of the board of trustees. His interest in church affairs was deep and sincere and
the church had a large place in his thoughts and plans. Ministers of the church have been his most intimate friends and more than one
has testified to the fact that Mr.
Browning's spirit has been a source
of frequent inspiration and helpfulness.

In D. Rees Browning people recognized a stalwart and courageous
man. He was calm and gentle in demeanor and kindness marked his every word and deed. But underlying all was the firmness of the man who unswervingly followed in the path of duty. With some men gentleness of manner gives the suggestion of a vacillating spirit but to know Mr. Browning was to recognize a character founded upon a rock. He was deeply devout in spirit and in his daily life there was constant evidence of a heart's desire
"to do justice, to love mercy and to walk humbly with God."

Four years ago Mr. Browning was married to Miss Ella Headley of Lexington, Kentucky, and after their coming to Jacksonville their home
was established at 1421 Mound avenue, near the old Browning homestead. Mr. Browning is survived by Mrs. Browning, and one sister, Mrs.
T. B. Orear, and by a large number of more distant relatives, in Morgan
county and in Kentucky.

Arrangements for the funeral will be made known later.

Dick Wallace, under indictment for horse stealing and who escaped from the county jail Friday night is still at large. Sheriff Rogers yesterday found near the jail a wooden key whittled from a broom stick. It was cleverly made and the sheriff feels certain that Wallace used it in open-

DEMANDS PASSAGE OF ANTI-TRUST BILLS

PRESIDENT WILL BE SATISFIED WITH NOTHING LESS THAN BILLS' PASSAGE

Wilson Said to Be Firmly of the Opinion That Anti-Trust Legislation Should Be Enacted at This Session and That No Compromise
Will Be Satisfactory to Him.

SATURDAY IN CONGRESS.
Senate.
Met at 11 a. m.

Considered agricultural appropriation bill.
An amendment to the agricultural bill to limit expenditures
in the cotton belt, proposed by
Mr. McCumber, was defeated.

A resolution calling on the treasury department to report
which foreign commodities would be excluded by the bill to bar convict made goods, was introduced by Mr. Smith of Georgia and passed.

Passed $19,700,000 agricultural appropriation bill.
Amendment to sundry civil appropriation bill to increase compensation of employees on the soldiers' roll proposed by Senator Smoot. Adjourned at 6:04
p. m., to 11 a. m. Monday.

General debate on Clayton anti-trust bill resumed.
Adjourned at 5:10 p. m. to 11
a. m. Monday.

WASHINGTON, May 23.—President Wilson will be satisfied with nothing less than the passage
through both houses of congress at the present session of the anti-trust legislation. This was made clear today by officials close to the administration. This attitude was made known in answer to suggestions that some leaders at the capitol believed
it would be sufficient to pass the anti-trust bills in the house and only agree on a time for a vote next session in the senate. It was said
at the white house the president is firmly of the opinion that anti-trust legislation should be enacted at this session and is not willing to make any compromise which might danger the programme determined
upon by the house Democratic caucus.

In the house today the Clayton
bill to supplement the present laws
against trusts, the second of the administration anti-trust measures
was discussed. Representative Floyd
of Arkansas, a member of the judiciary sub-committee which framed
the Clayton bill vigorously supported the measure and urged Democrats, Republicans and Progressives to vote for it. He quoted from the testimony of President Gompers of the American federation of labor,
before the judiciary committee to show that Mr. Gompers had asked for just what was put in the bill.

"Mr. Gompers pointed out," he said, "that under the present law
the labor unions are at the mercy of the attorney general of the United States. Under the construction of the Sherman anti-trust law by the supreme court in the standard oil
and American tobacco company cases
the unions could be at once dissolved."

"We are doing what Mr. Gompers asked. We are taking them out from under the ban of the law that would make them liable to dissolution.
This is a bill of rights for labor."

Program Cannot Be Altered.
A suffrage delegation representing college women today urged Chairman Henry of the house rules committee to have his committee favorably report a rule to bring up at this session the woman suffrage constitutional amendment already reported by the judiciary committee.

Mrs. Robert M. LaFollette, Miss Elsie Hill and Miss Genevieve Walsh, daughter of Senator Walsh of Montana were in the delegation. Chairman Henry told them the legislative program had been arranged by the Democratic caucus and could not be altered except by further caucus action.

DR. A. M. KING READS PAPER ON CHILDREN'S HEALTH

Gives Statistics on School Students
Before Jacksonville Medical Club.

The Jacksonville Medical club
held their regular meeting at the Public Library last evening. Dr. A.
M. King read an excellent paper on "The Health of the Public School Child". During the school year, Dr.
King said, there had been a total of 13 cases of scarlet fever with one death; twenty seven cases of diphtheria with six deaths; eight cases
of small pox. He stated that Miss Olmsted, health nurse, had found that in the first ward there were 292 defects out of 386 children; in the second ward, 292 defects out of 404 pupils; in the third ward, 309
pupils out of 402, and in the fourth ward, 297 out of 401. There was a total of 1099 deficient pupils out of 1593 examined. For uncleanliness alone there were 36 in the first ward; 28 in the second ward; 23 in the third ward, and 16 in the fourth ward.

There was a motion passed that
at the first meeting in September Dr.
King was to hand in a list of contagious diseases to be quarantined and length of duration. At this fall meeting there will be a general invitation to all doctors of the city
who will join in a general discussion
of health conditions and there will be framed up a list of the diseases
that should be quarantined and placarded, and each physician will be required to sign a statement that he will live up to the agreement and if not, prosecutions will be made in those neglecting this important duty. It was the sense of the meeting
that at the coming school year strenuous means would be taken to ward off contagious diseases.

POLITICAL PLANS OF MORGAN
AND SANGAMON PROGRESSIVES

Thomas Stevenson, Capt. J. E.
Wright, L. O. Vaughn and others
who attended the banquet of Morgan and Sangamon county Progressives last week in Springfield, bring announcement of the probable
trend of politics in the 45th assembly district. The plan is to place in nomination a Morgan county man for the house and a resident of Sangamon for the state senate.
This local leader think would give
a candidate for the house a strong chance of election, by aid of the vote in Morgan county which has been unrepresented in the assembly
for twelve years.

There were 140 Progressive party
members at the banquet. Frank Funk was among the speakers as
was Judge Prentice of Chicago, a life long Democrat who is spoken of
as a possible candidate for the U. S.
senate.

HABEAS CORPUS PROCEEDINGS.

Habeas corpus proceedings were brought in the circuit court Saturday
by P. P. Thompson in behalf of Clarence M. Stark of Louisiana, Mo., who is at Maplewood Sanatorium. A writ was asked by Rogers requiring the sanatorium authorities to bring
Mr. Stark into court Monday next.
At that time it will be probably
shown that he has a right to return to Missouri. It is understood that an effort has been made to have Mr.
Stark declared insane and that some families differences have resulted in the present proceedings. The family
is very wealthy and owns the well known Stark Nursery near Louisiana.

CATHOLICS UNION OF ILLINOIS.

Illinois. The day was given over to the reception of visitors. Tomorrow
the delegates will attend the celebration of pontifical high mass by Bishop Ryan of Alton. In the afternoon there will be a big street pa-

Tuesday.

REGULAR SHOOT AT PARK.

The Nichols Park Gun Club will hold a regular shoot at the park Wednesday afternoon. Interest in the sport has shown an increase
since the registered shoot of last

marksmen are expected at the club
grounds Wednesday at 1:30 o'clock.

TO BEGIN HENRY CASE MONDAY AFTERNOON

DEFENDANT WILL BE TRIED ON INDICTMENT WHICH CHARGES
MURDER OF CHARLES EZARD.

Attorneys Concede Several Days
Will Be Necessary to Secure Jury
—Nearly Five Hundred Men
Available for Examination as Jurors—Defendant Likely to Take Stand in His Own Defense—Insanity Plea Anticipated.

The court scene for the opening of the trial of John W. Henry for murder is all set and according to the plan as outlined the trial will be called in the circuit court Monday afternoon. After the case is called, according to regular court routine and the prosecution and defense have signified that they are ready for trial the defendant who must be present in court will enter a plea of not guilty.

Following precedent it is likely that the defense will then make a motion to quash the indictment under which Henry is to be tried. This however will be a mere formal motion to complete the record and will not be argued and an order of the court overruling the motion will be entered. When proceedings have reached this stage the examination of the veniremen will be entered upon. There are 36 jurors in the regular list for service during the 3rd and 4th weeks of the term.

500 Jurors Names Available.
It is not likely that twelve men satisfactory to both prosecution and defense can be secured from this number. Without a court order for a special venire there are between 250 and 300 names now in the jury box and 200 more are available from the list compiled by the Morgan county commissioners in accordance with the jury law. Should this whole number be exhausted it will then be necessary for the commissioners to get together and draw a new list.

There is still speculation as to whether or not the trial will be entered upon at this time as it is contrary to all local precedent for a criminal case of such importance to be tried at the term succeeding the alleged criminal act. However attorneys for the defense have for several weeks past maintained that they would be ready for trial at the present term and that they had no desire whatever for a continuance. On the other hand the prosecution has notified the court that the state is ready for trial. Even with all these affirmations there are a goodly number of people who still believe that something will turn up

Monday to cause a continuance of the case.

Neither W. N. Hairgrove of the defense nor T. F. Smith of the prosecution would outline yesterday the course to be followed in the conduct of the case. It is understood that either Mr. Smith or Mr. Miller will make the opening statement following the selection of a jury and that either W. N. Hairgrove or W. T. Wilson will make the opening statement for the defense. The greatest interest will be naturally attach to the statement of the defense as in that speech will be outlined the case by which Mr. Henry's attorneys hope to have him escape punishment for the crime with which he is charged.

Difficulties of Jury Getting.
Asked Saturday about his estimate as to the probable time which will be required for securing a jury, Mr. Hairgrove said: "It seems to me that we should be able to secure a jury within two days of possibly three from the time the trial is entered upon. All that the defense desires in this case is a high class jury of intelligent men. It is true however that the rules of law make it harder to secure a jury of this kind than is apparent on first thought. A possible juror although well qualified for service in other respects can be excused by the prosecution if he entertains opinions opposed to capital punishment. This one thing exempts from jury duty a great many men who are otherwise well qualified. Another thing that both the state and the defense must combat in a case of this kind is the natural reluctance that a great many people have to serve upon a jury where such large personal interests are at stake."

T. Forest Smith, acting state's attorney, talking upon the same question said: "We are fully prepared for trial, and it seems that the case is to be called and tried at this term although this action is contrary to precedent. There will be some difficulties in securing a jury because there has been so much in the papers about the Henry case but our highest thought is to secure twelve unbiased, intelligent men who are ready to weigh all of the evidence and to bring in a verdict in accordance with the facts and the law."

No Witnesses Summoned.
It is understood that the state has summoned no witnesses other than those whose names appear upon the indictments rendered by the grand jury. No witnesses for the defense have been summoned, and in explanation of this fact when asked about the matter Saturday Mr. Hairgrove said: "It is true that we expect to enter upon the trial Monday and that we have subpoenaed no witnesses as yet. All our witnesses live within a few miles of Jacksonville and are easily reached by phone. Most of them are exceptionally busy on their farms just now and as there is every reason to believe that we will be two or three days in securing a jury we have thought it unnecessary to subpoena these men several days before their actual attendance is necessary."

Aside from speculation as to whether the trial will actually be entered upon Monday great interest attaches to the question as to whether or not John W. Henry will take the stand in his own defense. If it were announced that the accused would testify people would probably assume that the defense is to be temporary or emotional insanity. Dr. F. P. Norbury will probably testify as an expert on mental diseases and it seems practically sure that insanity will be the plea.

Henry is under three indictments, one for the murder of Charles Ezard; a second for the murder of Everett Crain and a third charging a like crime as related to Howard Crain. The indictment under which he is to be called for trial Monday charges him with the murder of Charles Ezard. This indictment which is duly signed by State's Attorney Robert Tilton is in six counts each one charging the same crime but varying somewhat in legal verbiage.

The grand jury witnesses whose names appear upon the indictments are Frank Kehl, Jacob Steinmetz, R. D. Megginson, Catherine Lucille Henry, Emma Susan Henry, Mabel Crain, Oswald Crain, Hazel A. Ezard, Kettie M. Ezard, Dr. R. R. Jones, Luella Henry, Elsie Adams, Dallas Crain, Edward Bradley, G. R. Henry, John L. Thurston, Chas.

D. Irlam, Ira H. Barrow and Dr. S. J. Carter.

Form of the Indictment.
The first count of the indictment under which Henry will be tried is in the following language:

"The grand jurors, selected and sworn in and for the county of Morgan in the State of Illinois, upon their oaths present, that John W. Henry, late of the county of Morgan State of Illinois, on the 27th day of January in the year of Our Lord 1914, aforesaid, with force and arms, in and upon one Charles Ezard, a human being in the peace of the people, then and there being, wilfully and feloniously and of his malice aforethought, did then and there make an assault with a certain deadly weapon, to-wit, a certain shotgun, which said certain shotgun the said John W. Henry then and there held in his hands, which said certain shotgun was then and there charged and loaded with gunpowder and divers leaden shot; and that the said John W. Henry, the said shotgun then and there held in his hands as aforesaid, charged and loaded with gunpowder and divers leaden shot as aforesaid, then and there did wilfully and feloniously and of his malice aforethought discharge and shoot off to; against and upon the said Charles Ezard and that the said John W. Henry with the leaden shot aforesaid, out of the shotgun aforesaid, then and there by the force of the gunpowder, aforesaid, by the said John W. Henry discharged, and shot off, as aforesaid, in and upon the body of him, the said Charles Ezard, then and there, wilfully and feloniously and of his malice aforethought did strike, penetrate and wound the said Charles Ezard in and upon the right side of him, the said Charles Ezard, at or near the lower point of the right shoulderblade of him, giving to the said Charles Ezard, then and there, with the leaden shot, aforesaid, so as aforesaid, shot and discharged and sent forth out of said shotgun aforesaid by the said John W. Henry in and upon the right side of him, on mortal wound of which said mortal wound the said Charles Ezard then and there instantly died. And so the grand jurors aforesaid do say that the said John W. Henry, the said Charles Ezard, by the means aforesaid, and in the manner and form aforesaid, then and there wilfully, feloniously and of his malice aforethought, did kill and murder, contrary to the form of the statute in such case made and provided and against the peace and dignity of the said people of the state of Illinois.

First Jurors to Be Examined.

DO YOU MILK COWS.

At the demonstration of the MINNETONNA HOME CREAMERY plant at our store yesterday afternoon, the representative of the company used thirty pounds of sour cream, testing 18 per cent, containing five and four tenths pounds (5.4) of butter fat, which if sold at local sour cream butterfat prices, would have brought the producer $1.40. This cream was churned, wash, worked and salted in the MINNETONNA plant, and yielded almost seven pounds of butter, of a fine quality and firmness which would demand a premium price on any market. This shows a gain in favor of the MINNETONNA system of almost 70 cents on this small churning. Can you afford to throw away seventy cents on each churning of similar size that you make at your home? At this rate the plant will pay for itself in a short time, besides saving a great amount of the usual drudgery and work usually connected with churning in the ordinary way, and give you a superior quality of butter besides. Come in and look at one of these plants. HALL BROS.

SOCIAL EVENTS.

The Centenary Young Men's club entertained the young ladies of Miss Swain's class Friday evening at the home of Claude Williams. The gathering was a left-hand social and this idea was carried out in detail even to the serving and consuming of the refreshments. The young people spent a delightful evening together, which bids fair to be one of many. The young men are members of Miss Myrtle Sheppard's class and have recently organized. They are doing splendid work and are actively interested in their organization.

The party was in charge of the social and entertainment committee with Warren Maddox chairman and John Bishop and Fred Darr assistants. The young people departed with many thanks to Mr. Williams for the pleasant evening spent in his home which was in every respect at the disposal of his guests.

The Sophomore class of the Woman's college were hostesses Saturday afternoon at a social for the members of the Senior class at the home of Miss Marie Miller, of West State street, a sophomore. Artistically arranged decorations, delicate refreshments and cleverly planned games combined to make the afternoon an occasion of more than usual enjoyment. Miss Grace Cowan, Sophomore class officer, and Miss Mary Johnston, officer of the Senior class, were guests of honor.

Miss Hazel Strawn, gave a delightful May Breakfast at her home, 615 South West street Saturday, in honor of Miss Daisy Coons who is to wed next month. The house was decorated in pink and white peonies and these colors were carried out in the five course breakfast served and greatly enjoyed. The guest list included intimate friends of Miss Coons, members of the E. B. P. club. In the progressive games played Mrs. Harry Rice won first prize.

AT THE GRAND.

Jacksonville playgoers were highly pleased Saturday evening by the appearance of Mrs. Fiske as Mrs. Bumpstead-Leigh, a star role of extreme difficulty which acted with such ease and calm self assurance as to justify all reports of her versatility and genius. This three act comedy by Harry James Smith, "Mrs. Bumpstead-Leigh" is the third and last of a series which was brought here under auspices of the Jacksonville Center of the Drama League of America and from all utterances of the large audience Saturday evening, proved a fitting climax to the Drama League numbers. Nor did Mrs. Fiske lack support from the other members of the cast. Each player in the Manhattan company so skillfully carried out his role, so ably displayed his individuality at all times, as to prove this production of Harrison Grey Fiske a super-excellent masterpiece of American dramatic genius.

With interest increasing each moment of the play's progress the audience at the Grand followed the fortunes of the family DeSalle, from a Hoosier village to aristocratic England and back again to America and the country house on Long Island. Mrs. DeSalle kept her pristine plainness; her daughter became well Angelized and found a hyphen for her name. Violet DeSalle, played by Nina Melville, was winsome and coquettish, but had sufficient conscience not to play the game to long. She remembered her father, the medicine faker, Miss Rawson of iciness and hauteur and Justin Rawson, her equal in this regard, played their parts well as did Geoffrey Rawson, Benjamin Kauser, the devoted lover who made discoveries and was discovered. Anne Faystone as Mrs. Stephen Leavitt, the tattler, displayed ability of a high type. Peter Swallow of tomb-stone fame was a role well adapted to Malcolm Duncan.

In this play of pure amusement, Mrs. Fiske is appearing in a role comparatively new. As "Tess," as "Becky Sharpe," as "Salvation Nell" she has won laurels, not to mention her superlative work in interpretation of Ibsen. Mrs. Bumpstead-Leigh pleased well the playgoers of the city and the performance won much credit for the local center of the Drama League. (Worthy of especial mention also is the musical program. The numbers by the orchestra between the acts were well selected and of decided classical range. They contributed considerably to the success of the performance.

AT LUTTRELL'S MAJESTIC.

"Samson", a special Universal film feature described as one of the most dramatic and awe inspiring photodramas ever produced, will be presented at Luttrell's Majestic next Tuesday.

The story of Samson is the story of the strongest man who ever lived; his name today is known to almost every man, woman and child throughout the civilized world, and even to those who do not know his story his name is a synonym of strength. But besides that the thrilling story of the life of this man, to whom God gave power and strength such as no man possessed, and to whom he gave carte blanche in righting his wrongs, is the most spectacular, romantic and tragic of any of the heroes of antiquity.

The film representation which the Universal has evolved from the history of Samson, and told in six wonderful reels follows the account in the Book of Judges with startling accuracy. Nothing is left out. The film shows the anxiety of Samson's parents for a son, the prophesy of his birth and tremendous strength so long as he remains unshaven. Then the camera skips to the period of his young manhood, his courtship of a daughter of the Philistines and his betrothal. On the way to the marriage he slays a lion, and upon returning to the carcass sometime later he notices that bees have begun to live in it. From this circumstance he propounds a riddle which the Philistines are unable to answer until they force Samson's wife to find out for them. Samson has promised thirty changes of raiment for the solution of the riddle and he is very angry. He casts off his wife, sets fire to the fields of the Philistines and killing thirty men of Askelon he disdainfully pays his wager to the Philistines. Then he retires to a cave, whence he is sought out by an army of Philistines who have determined to kill him at all costs. But Samson slays a thousand of them with the jawbone of an ass and puts the rest to flight. Then follow the other events of his interesting career.

PRINCE LOUIS HAS REACHED SIXTIETH BIRTHDAY.

Senior Naval Lord of the British Admiralty Receives Congratulations.

London, May 23.—Prince Louis of Battenberg, who is the senior naval lord of the British admiralty, is receiving many congratulations in advance of his 60th birthday anniversary, which comes tomorrow. The criticisms that followed the recent announcement of the appointment of Prince Alexander of Teck as governor general of Canada calls to mind the fact that Prince Louis of Battenberg had to contend with much of the same sort during his earlier career in the British navy. The popular objections to the Tecks as well as the Tecks is not based on the fact that they are connected with the royal family, but that they are of German origin.

In the case of Prince Louis of Battenberg the objections on these grounds have a much firmer foundation than in the case of the Tecks. Though every inch a loyal Britisher, Prince Louis is nevertheless a native of Germany, the son of a German prince, the bearer of a German name and title, and the brother-in-law of both Prince Henry of Prussia and the German czar.

The post of senior naval lord is the highest in the British navy after its representative in the cabinet, the first lord of the admiralty. The rank and file of the navy has been more or less opposed to Prince Louis of Battenberg holding the post, on the same grounds that the army long opposed the Duke of Cambridge having the highest command, namely, that it was given him because he was a member of the royal family instead of for professional competency. Prince Louis, however, has had a wide naval experience. He was a lieutenant on the Inconstant during the Egyptian war, and, in charge of a battery, landed with the naval squadron for the occupation of Alexandria. He has held command of a cruiser squadron, in the Mediterranean fleet, in the Atlantic fleet, and in the Home fleet. He also held the important post of director of naval intelligence.

DEMOCRATS FACE LOSSES.

Chicago Post: Mark Sullivan, who stands in the political conning tower of Collier's Weekly scanning the far horizon, sees stormy weather ahead for the triumphant Democracy. In his current comment he reviews the present proportions of the parties in Congress and asks: "Will the Democrats be able to keep their preponderant majority?"

His answer is: "Assuredly not." * * * the Democrats are sure to lose a large number of the seats they now hold. Whether their loss will be large enough to amount to a vote of lack of confidence in the Democratic party is a question whose answer will not appear until November.

He is not so sure who will be chief gainer by these losses, but he believes the consent of Colonel Roosevelt to accept the Progressive nomination for Governor of New York would have a tremendously stimulating effect upon the chances of his party. So far as can be gathered from what the Colonel is reported to have said since his arrival at Oyster Bay, he is not likely to satisfy the wishes of New York Progressives in this matter. But if he refuses to make the race, it is to be expected that he will find other ways of giving to the party the strength and stimulus which are to be derived from his inspiring leadership.

It is assuredly true that all over the country there is a quickening of Progressive interest. It is due probably in large degree to three causes—a growing sense that the Democratic administration has failed to make good; the evidence that standpatism survives with dominant strength in the Republican party, and the return of the Colonel.

Mr. Sullivan finds three counts against the Democrats. They have shamelessly violated their promises of economy, devoting themselves to "pork" with conscienceless greed; they have involved themselves in a middle on anti-trust legislation, and they disturbed the nation's confidence in the matter of their foreign policy. To these three may be added the fact that they have postponed action in the case of rural credits, a course that will not please the farmers of the country.

To their credit he places the tariff and the currency bills. But the former has not brought them unmixed credit, and the latter is wholly experimental as yet.

Two things may work out for Democratic advantages. One is a practical certainty—the promise of unprecedentedly good crops; the other is a bare possibility—vindictive success for the President's Mexican policy.

The outlook politically is sufficiently problematical to occasion keen anxiety to those who hold power and to instill fighting hope into those who are on the firing line of opposition.

HERE IS SUPER-STRENGTH

REO THE FIFTH is designed by a man who believes in super-strength. He has learned this need through 27 years of car building.

In this 35-horsepower car, every driving part is made to meet the requirements of a 50-horsepower engine. And every test goes far beyond the usual requirements.

FOR INSTANCE

For years we have kept test chassis on the road. Relays of drivers have run them at high speed night and day. After 10,000 miles of this reckless driving we take the car apart and inspect it.

Not only must the chassis stand that test, but every vital part must stay new. It must show but little evidence of wear.

We could build this car for one-fourth less by just skimming the hidden parts. Under normal conditions it might for a time serve you as well as this. But it could not stay new. And it might cost you hundreds of extra dollars in troubles, repairs and upkeep.

DOES IT PAY?

It pays us to give you the utmost in a car. We have in this way held the lead in our class. The demand for such cars has grown and grown, faster than we could supply it. We are building for the future—for what men will say five years after buying the car.

It also pays owners to buy such a car, when they buy a car to keep.

GO AND SEE.

Go and see this car. See the handsome streamline body, the perfect equipment, electric lights, and a car will appeal to you.

starter, deep upholstery, perfect finish.

Then go below all that. Get the details of this costly chassis. Find out why each car is six weeks in the building.

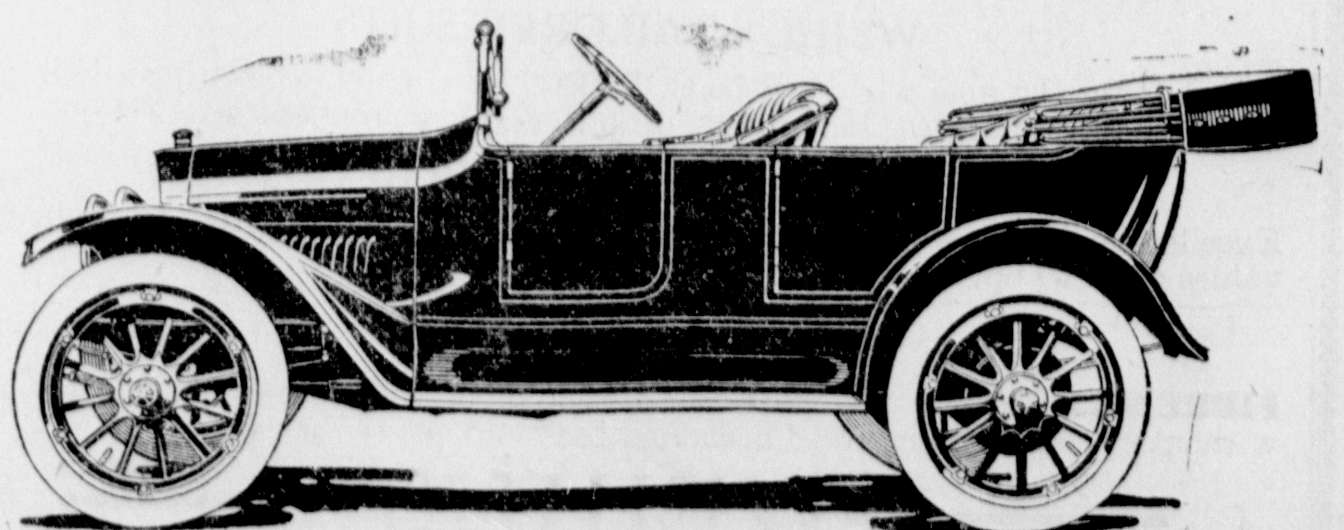

Then note how low we have brought the price. Last year's price was $1,395, with electric starter and lights. This year it is $220 less. Most of that saving comes from the fact that all our special machinery for building this car has been charged against previous output.

We are giving you here the best we know, regardless of time and cost. The more you know about motor car troubles, the more such a car will appeal to you.

THEN and NOW

It was just seventy years ago today that the telegraph was formally introduced. Samuel F. B. Morse, the inventor who had worked for 12 years on electro-magnetic communication, and his associate, Alfred Vail, had strung the first line between Washington and Baltimore. On the morning of May 24, 1844, Annie G. Ellsworth, daughter of the then Commissioner of Patents, burst into the United States supreme court chambers at Washington where Morse and several distinguished men were gathered around his telegraph instrument, and brought the news that Congress had appropriated $30,000 for official tests of the invention, after a disheartening series of refusals. Morse reached for the sending key and ticked off the historic message "What hath God wrought?" Vail, in a station at Baltimore, surrounded by another group of distinguished men read the message upon a paper tape. Two days later the telegraph gave out its first public news by announcing that Polk had been nominated for the presidency in the Baltimore convention.

Today the telegraph is one of the most important strands holding modern civilization together. It is estimated that something like half a billion news dispatches, business communications and social messages are transmitted every year over the six million miles of telegraph wire connecting practically all of the important settlements in the world. Nearly 300,000 miles of submarine telegraph also have been laid. One invention after another led to the reading of messages wholly by sound, to the sending of as many as a dozen messages simultaneously over one circuit and in a crude form the sending of pictures over the wire by intermittently flashing beams of light. In its most advanced form the telegraph has eliminated wires altogether and from hundreds of stations ashore and from the masts of almost every large ocean going vessel the exchange of messages through the air has lately become almost as commonplace as ordinary wire communication.

The Plumber

By WALT MASON.

With stately pride the plumber comes, and stays around a while and plumbs. He gives the boiler sundry slaps, and tinkers with the pipes and taps and when he leaves my humble place a smile of gladness lights my face. For he has made a modern shack of my abode, which three weeks back, was such as people used to own along about the age of stone. For years I bought all kinds of pills to cure my relatives of ills. My poor old granny had the heaves, and swallowed tea of boneset leaves, year after year, and still felt punk, with daily spasms in her trunk. My aunt was foundered, and she knew green pains with every breath she drew, and though I bought her pills of dope, the poor old girl was shorn of hope. My Uncle Hiram's rheumatiz just kept him muttering, "Gee whiz!" And everyone around the shack had pink lumbago in the back. And then the Wise Man came along, and said: "You'll never be well and strong, you'll always have the grievous gripes until you put in modern pipes." The plumber came, with lead and brass, and free of the place from sewer gas, and ev'ning some sanitation curves—and gets the praise that he deserves. Now granny has no fell disease; she's swinging on the high trapeze; my aunt can take a fall from Gutch in seven minutes by the watch, My Uncle Hiram, rid of aches, can whip Jack Johnson in three shakes.

DOZEN CARDINALS WILL BE CREATED AT CONSISTORY

Affairs in Eternal City Are Astir Because of Events in Prospect.

Rome, May 23.—On the eve of the long looked for consistory, at which a dozen cardinals are to be created, the Eternal City is greatly astir over the event and is lavishly decorated in honor of the occasion. Not in centuries has a consistory attracted so much outside interest as the present one, owing to the large number of cardinals to be created, and the ceremonies, which will begin Monday and continue through the greater part of the week, promise to be among the most imposing in the history of the church.

The city is overrun with visitors from all over the continent and hundreds of American tourists have arranged their itineraries so as to be in Rome the coming week. Those from the United States desire to witness the ceremonies, or that portion open to the public, in which three of their countrymen—Cardinals Gibbons, Farley and O'Connell—will take part. Among the visitors are many Canadians, mostly clergy, who are attracted to the consistory by the fact that among those to be created princes of the church is one of their number—the Most Rev. Louis Nazaire Bevin, archbishop of Quebec.

Two distinct ceremonies will be performed when the new cardinals receive their insignia of office. The first will be at the consistory, to be held Monday, when the cardinals are to be officially created and receive the red hat from the hands of the pope. At this ceremony the pope will ask the opinion of the sacred college concerning the newly named and will then solemnly proclaim them cardinals in the name of the Holy Catholic Church. The second ceremony at St. Peter's cathedral will equal if not surpass the first in pomp and splendor. It will consist of the imposition of the red biretta and zucchetto. Before the bestowal, however, there will be a grand procession of prelates and priests and an imposing mass in the presence of the pope.

The creation of so many cardinals at one time, though made necessary by deaths in the sacred college, is extraordinary; and has been duplicated or surpassed only once in modern times. A still more remarkable feature of the consistory is the fact that of the twelve candidates only half are Italians. The addition of six foreigners to the sacred college will reduce the Italian majority in that body to the smallest proportion in many years.

No English speaking cardinals are included in the list of those to be elevated at this consistory. The honor bestowed upon the archbishop of Quebec is considered as a recognition of the French speaking Catholicism of Canada. Some disappointment has been expressed that no English speaking prelate has been included in the list. It was generally expected that Australia would be thus honored, Cardinal Moran of Sydney having died last year.

The recognition of Abbot Gasquet, president of the English Benedictines, is gratifying to the liberal minded element of the church, though none of the less surprising. Abbot Gasquet visited America only a short time ago and will be remembered as the head of the Benedictine commission that is revising the Vulgate translation of the Bible.

The conferring of the honor upon two Germans, the archbishop of Cologne, and the archbishop of Munich, is in part due to the unwonted friendliness which now obtains between Emperor William, aggressive Protestant, and the Vatican.

Mgr. P. Piffle, another of the foreign candidates, is the new archbishop of Vienna. It will be remembered that Archbishop Nagel, elevated at the same consistory as Cardinals Farley and O'Connell of the United States, a man in the prime of life and full of vigor, died suddenly within the year. Before his death, however, he had made marked changes in the church in Vienna in the direction of more places of worship, and the elevation of his successor is partly in recognition of his work.

One of the most significant of the appointments is that of Mgr. Della Chiesa, archbishop of Bologna. Della Chiesa spent four years as secretary to the nunciature at Madrid and in 1887 went into the office of secretary of state, when the office was held by Cardinal Rampolla, of whom he was a devoted follower.

Little is said concerning the others who are to be given the red hat. Each of them has for years been closely connected with the Vatican and its strong men and in consequence have been regarded as in line for the honor that has finally been bestowed upon them.

CONFERENCE ON CITY PLANNING.

Toronto, May 23.—All preparations have been completed for the International Conference on City Planning, which is to meet in this city during the first half of the coming week. The Duke of Connaught, governor general of the dominion, has accepted an invitation to preside at the opening of the conference. Included in the attendance will be delegates from all parts of Canada and from many of the leading cities of the United States.

Among the principal subjects scheduled for discussion at the conference are recent progress in city planning, the protection of residential districts, water front developments, the Canadian town planning act, garden cities and suburbs, public playgrounds and recreation facilities, parks and boulevards, building restrictions, transportation facilities and the provision for the future, and the relative importance of city planning as compared with other functions of city government.

Harold Hilton, last year's British amateur golf champion, is agitating
a change in the English rules, which he claims are decidedly unsatisfactory. He wants the American plan adopted, because, he says, Yankee methods preclude all chance of luck figuring in the results. Hilton was one of those eliminated in the trial
plays, all through "luck in the breaks," he maintains.

SOME OFF-SIDE CHUTES.

For the first time this season, the war scries traveling with the White Sox, on Saturday gave the team an unmerciful panning because of the loss of the game with the Red Sox Friday. The South Side outfit is the only combination in either of the big leagues who cannot or will not advance a runner through a sacrifice. With a man on the runways and with nobody down, the white geared athletes invariably attempt to "kill" the ball, with the result that almost always the runner is quarantined at the close of the inning. Several of the White Sox losses this year have been due solely to this bonehead kind of play.
They have forgotten all about team
work, and seem to be out for a selfish record only. That record they have earned—and it is not an enviable one, either.

Down in Evansville, Ind., the management of the local Central league
team became so anxious for the dollar of our duds that in their haste
a temporary stand was erected to accommodate an overflow. Friday
this death trap was turned

We Keep Your Suit New!

The man who does not have his clothes dry cleaned and pressed frequently,—does not get the full wear out of them.

Long before the clothes are worn out the lapels droop over, the coat front breaks, the sleeves wrinkle and pull out at the elbow, the trousers become baggy and lose their shape at the bottom, and the entire suit looks old and disreputable.

Our service keeps them clean and fresh, keeps them shaped right and fitting perfectly until they wear out. It's not only an aid to good dressing—but a real economy, as well.

Take advantage of it frequently.

I have been using Vittrified Tile Silos for last three years and they have given very satisfactory results. There is not a crack or leak in them anywhere and I will also say the ensilage has kept practically perfect right up to the wall.

FARMERS NOTICE

We Are Now Manufacturing Fertilizers For Soil

We have made a careful study of soil conditions and are now putting up an article which is considered the best on the market for INCREASED YIELD OF Corn or Oats. The same has the following analysis:

Bone phosphate	63.09 per cent.
Phosphoric acid	28.90 per cent.
Nitrogen	2.53 per cent.
Ammonia	3.07 per cent.

If you will carefully compare the analysis of our ROYAL BRAND BONE MEAL, you will find that the same is cheaper than the use of Rock Phosphate or any other fertilizers which are now on the market.

It only requires from 100 to 150 pounds of our BONE MEAL to an acre of soil, depending upon the condition of the soil.

This will increase your yield of corn or oats from 10 to 20 bushels to the acre for the first year.

The Coming Week's Most Important Event.

Aside from the many activities connected with the closing days of the Jacksonville schools and colleges, the most important event scheduled for the coming week is the meeting of the Young Men's Booster Club to be held on Tuesday evening in the Chamber of Commerce rooms. Not only members of the club are invited but graduates of our schools and young fellows who expect to accept permanent employment during the coming summer.

There are many young men engaged as clerks and apprentices who will some day be shouldering the responsibilities of the bankers and business men of today. The successful merchant or manufacturer is the one who is endeavoring to train and educate the young men in his employ to be not only successful in the conduct of the business of his company, but to work for enterprises of community importance. The young men of Jacksonville should pattern their lives after the progressive citizen and business man and not let it drift into selfish and tight-fisted channels.

The Chamber of Commerce in providing a young men's department affords a medium for exchange of ideas and the development of citizenship and civic proud characters.

Jacksonville and Her Trees.
What is the city of Jacksonville doing today to preserve and care for the most valuable asset which the city possesses—her beautiful and well developed trees? This is the most important problem and one which the community as a unit is doing nothing to solve. There are a few far-seeing and expense to protect their trees from future injury and which will mean a prolongation in the trees' life.

Daily do we stand by and witness abuses and ravages made by disinterested parties to destroy our well developed elms which are so important to our scenic beauty. The timely suggestions of President Reeve of the Chamber of Commerce, in which he advocated the establishment of a permanent tree commission and the employment of an expert by the city would be a good investment for the city.

It is hoped that public spirited citizens will contribute and urge others to assist in having the trees of Duncan park and Central park properly looked after. Two well known business men have signified their willingness to contribute liberally for this work and it is hoped that the park board, city administration and private individuals will offer their services.

Advertising Folders Going Fast.
During the past few weeks the office of the Chamber of Commerce has been busy sending out advertising folders telling of the advantages of the city. Through the courtesy offered by railroads, interurban companies and hotel managers hundreds of people have opportunely been disposed of. They have gone out in the following ways:
T. P. A. Organizations . . . . . 500

Railroads	1,200
Retail Merchants' Association	100
Newspapers	100
Commercial organizations	100
Hotels	200
Conventions	1,000
	3,500

The Business Men of St. Louis and Their Commercial Organization.

Following are a few brief quotations showing the attitude of some of the big business men in St. Louis toward their organization "The Business Men's League."

"Putting aside all civic obligations and looking at it from a purely selfish standpoint, one should belong to the Business Men's League, because it is one, big, necessary central body which guards the interests of Commercial St. Louis."

"In the government of cities no provision is made to foster and stimulate trade, increase the service of merchants and railroads, to properly entertain visitors, and to place a city in the most favorable attitude before strangers and her own people. This the splendid organization of the Business Men's League must do."

Phil A. Becker.
"The strongest argument to a citizen, whom we want as a member, is that he should be loyal to his city's interest and to display his loyalty by co-operating." S. S. Escoff.

The Chamber of Commerce of Jacksonville is just as essential for the protection and development of business interests of a city this size as is an organization in a city many times our size. You should join the organization of your own accord, if you are not a member, and help others boost for the only Jacksonville in Illinois.

Grave Danger if Blood is Disordered

Little Causes Develop Worst Kind of Trouble—No Danger if Blood is Fortified.

The Blood if Purified With S. S. S. Will Resist All Germ Infection.

There are so many reasons why everyone should look to the blood for health that the action of S. S. S. as a purifier and preserver is of paramount importance. We need so much food, so much oxygen, so much water, all of which in right proportion maintain the body. But the liver, kidneys, lungs, skin and bowels must all work in co-operation to convert the intake and expel all the waste and it remains a destructive influence to produce catarrh, rheumatism, boils, eruptions and a myriad of troubles recognized as the result of disordered blood. Remarkable testimonials have been written that prove beyond question there is no blood disease but what can be cured by S. S. S. And in all those cases that were treated with mercury, iodine, arsenic, copper and other minerals with no permanent effect, the most astonishing recoveries have been made by S. S. S. There is not a blood taint of any nature that can remain in a system fortified by this most wonderful remedy, for it is absolutely pure and contains only those elements that the blood naturally assimilates, and which the tissues gratefully accept. It agrees with the most delicate stomach, even in those cases where the use of strong drugs has so weakened the digestive system that medicine can not be given. Get a $1.00 bottle of S. S. S. at any drug store and thus be assured of a complete cure of any eruptive blood disease. If your case is peculiar and you desire special advice write to the Swift Specific Co., Medical Dept., Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

LIVESTOCK MARKETS SHOW FEW CHANGES PAST WEEK

No Advances Hoped For Unless Shipments Should Fall Below Estimates.

Alexander, Ward & Conover of Chicago in reviewing the livestock markets for the past week have the following to say:

Receipts of cattle Monday 21,200 and the markets 10 to 20 lower. Top $9.25 for two loads of prime Dakota averaging 1,600 lbs. Wednesday's receipts, 13,500; market active and strong to a shade higher. No heavy cattle as choice as the ones Monday. Top $9.15 for two loads averaging 1,432 lbs. Top on yearlings the same. The quality was not as good as Monday on all grades.

With a light run Thursday sellers were able to again boost prices and the market ruled strong to 10c higher. Top $9.25 for a drove of choice heavy cattle, while we sold a string of experimentally fed steers for the Indiana experiment station at Purdue, 64 head, at $9.20 with five yearlings and 2-year-olds at $9.50 cwt.

The bulk of the cattle this week have sold at a range of $8.25 to $8.75. Neither quality nor fat is coming as good as thirty days ago. The advance since Wednesday puts the market on a 15 to 25c higher basis than Monday, or 10 to 15c higher than the close last week on the bulk of the supply. Everything depends on the supply and demand for next week as to what the market will be.

Stockers and Feeders—A break was due on stockers and feeders, and nothing escaped a loss this week. Everything on the list, outside of the best selected light stockers, shows 25 to 40c decline from the recent high spot.

The failure of fat cattle trade to show much improvement recently and the busy season on the farm has kept down the attendance of buyers here this week, but the traders of the opinion that some reaction for the decline is likely within the immediate future in the event of moderate supply although there is no expectancy of prices again soaring to recent high levels, which in the opinion of the majority of traders, were considerably above a safe and sane basis.

Butcher Stock—The meager supply of butcher cattle the last few days cleared promptly on a steady to strong basis of prices. There was little good stuff in the run, and all such got good action, selling up to the best levels of Wednesday and of the year to date, the market on the rank and file of the good to choice fat cows and heifers showing advances of largely 10 to 15c over last week's closing. Medium and low-priced cow stuff and light fleshed classes on the stocker order were of slower sale and stocker classes lower. The advance scored during the week on the better grades of fat cows and heifers does not extend to the plain and medium dairy stuff, canners and cutters, along with most of the dairied cows, dragging on a weak-toned market and selling no better than steady with a week ago.

Short supplies of butcher cattle continue to hold this market on a high basis relatively to steers, and the trade sees little likelihood of the supply swelling to sufficient proportions to within the next two weeks to give the buying side opportunity to effect declines from high prices current.

Good bulls steady for the week; bolognas 10 to 15c lower. The bulk of veal calves selling from $10 to $10.50, 50c lower than a week ago. Heavy calves steady.

Stock and feeding bulls $6.00 to $6.40.
Stock calves, $7.50 to $8.25.

Stocks—We have a slight decrease in receipts of hogs this week compared with last, but there has not been much life to the trade. Packers have had quite a few hogs from day to day shipped in from the western markets, claiming they have been able to buy them cheaper in the West.

Choice shipping hogs have sold all week up to $8.60, but today (Friday) the receipts are heavier than expected, 17,000 with forty-four double decks of hogs direct to packers again, and market is a good 5c lower. Top is $8.55, with bulk of the good hogs selling at $8.45. The range is very narrow, $8.40 to $8.50 covering practically the crop.

We do not expect to see liberal hog runs for a while, but at the same time the demand is light, and we are not expecting any decline. The market at present is not in shape to stand a liberal run of hogs for any length of time.

Sheep—Our sheep and lamb market is closing up in pretty good shape for the week. Heavy ewes and wethers are due for a break and will very likely work quite a little lower as the warm weather comes on. However, good spring lambs and yearling lambs will be wanted for the next month or six weeks, as the supply will be rather short.

Good to choice clipped lambs sold today from $7.75 to $8.35; good to choice ewes, $3.50 to $5.75; good to choice bucks, $4.75 to $5.25. Not many yearlings coming.

ATTENTION MOTHERS

If You Have or Know of a Delicate Child Read This Letter.
"My little daughter, Louise, age 9 years, has always been delicate, anemic, had no appetite and seemed listless, and we could not seem to find anything that would help her, until we were advised to give her Vinol. She started taking it six weeks ago and inside of two weeks she showed a marked improvement, both in appetite, vim and looks. Being so well pleased with the results, I continued giving it to her, and words fail to express my gratitude, and both in Vinol both as a blood maker and body builder. As my child was an anemic for so long makes the reason all the stronger for me to recommend it to others in similar condition." Geo. E. Munro, Brooklyn, N. Y.
Vinol restores health and strength in conditions like this because in a natural manner it increases the appetite, tones up the digestive organs, enriches the blood and strengthens every organ of the body.
Every bottle of Vinol is guaranteed to give satisfaction or money refunded. Lee P. Alcott, druggist, Jacksonville, Ill.
P. S. For any skin trouble try our Sazo Salve. We guarantee it.—Adv.

NEW BOOKS AT THE PUBLIC LIBRARY

The following new books have been added to the library and will go into circulation Saturday, May 23 at one o'clock.

Literature.

Bates, K. L.—English religious drama.
Noyes, Alfred—The wine-press. Vivid vigorous verse. A picture of the Balkan war, not from the point of view of the "men in black tail-coats" to whom the "blood of peasants is not red a hundred miles away" but as the common soldier knows it.
Saintsbury, G. E. B.—Later nineteenth century.
Shoemaker, C. C.—Humorous dialogues.
Science and Useful Arts.
Ball, R. S.—A popular guide to the heavens, a series of eighty-three plates with explanatory text and index.
Bentley, G. M.—Eckkeeping in Tennessee.
Hirschfield, I. H.—The heart and blood vessels; their care and cure and the general management of the body.
Powell, G. H.—Co-operation in agriculture.
Richards, E. H.—Euthenics, the science of controllable environment.
Sociology.
Munsterberg, Hugo—Vocation and learning.
Wallace, A. R.—Social environment and moral progress.

In this volume Darwin's co-discover of evolution gives to the world his judgment on our present social conditions. Dr. Wallace maintains that mankind has made no perceptible advance, either intellectual or moral throughout the historical period.

Reference Books.

Gauss, H. C.—The American government.

Rent Fiction.

Locke, W. J.—Fortunate youth.

BACCALAUREATE SERMON FOR THE HIGH SCHOOL.

Services Will Be Held Sunday Morning in Central Christian Church.

The baccalaureate services of the Jacksonville high school will take place Sunday morning at 10:45 o'clock at the Central Christian church. The program will be as follows:
Processional, Iestral Prelude in D, Oliver King—Miss Alice Mathis.
Anthem, "Heaven and the Earth Display," (from Athalia), Mendelssohn—High school chorus.
Solo, "Thou wilt keep him in Perfect Peace," from "Isiah", Patten—Miss Alice Goodrick.

Postlude "Chant Triumphant"—Gaul.

VEHICLE TAX NOW DUE.

Notice is hereby given that vehicle license is now due and payable at this office. After May 15th names of delinquents will be given to the police department.

Since it is a necessity, most desirable, and will last a lifetime,
—isn't it thoughtless not to get it NOW instead of later?
A "Standard" Modern Bathroom should be considered exactly that way. You will not question that a sanitary bathroom is a necessity, so considered by all who have regard for cleanliness and refinement. The fixtures are guaranteed for a definite number of years and there is no reason for thinking that they will not last a great while longer; is it not then a matter of economy to get the equipment at once.
An estimate on such equipment, correctly installed with first class workmanship, will be given upon request.

BUGGIES AND HARNESS

THERE'S A DIFFERENCE

Between finding a buggy at your price and finding one that suits you at your price. If it is merely a question of spending a certain amount of money and not caring what you get, it doesn't make much difference where you buy. But if you are after a carriage that has style, comfort and service, and one that is guaranteed to give satisfaction, we have no hesitation in saying that we can take better care of you than any other place or elsewhere. Our stock includes all the popular modern styles in both high grade and medium work. The variety makes choosing easy; the prices make paying easier. If you intend buying a vehicle this year, why not drop in and talk it over.

Special A Real Bargain
1—$110 Buggy for ..... $75
1—$175 Surrey for ..... $100
1—$100 Delivery Wagon for... $75
These three jobs we are closing out below cost. They are the finest goods made and if you want big value don't let this real bargain get away.

Delivery Wagons
We are showing a fine line, with or without top; made to stand the wear and tear of paved streets. If you are looking for a good wagon, call and see ours.

Quick Meal Gasoline Stoves, Oil Stoves and Ovens Are the Best By Every Test

Detroit Jewel Gas Ranges, Hot Plates, etc.—Buy a Detroit Jewel and save fuel. North Star and Herrick Refrigerators; White Mountain Freezers. When you buy here you get the best goods at the right price.

You Need a Sewing Machine

The Great American BALL-BEARING LAWN MOWER
Cuts Your Work in 1/2
If you want to see the fastest sewing, lightest running and longest enduring sewing machine that makes it easy to do your sewing without waste, worry, delay, tired hands and aching back, call at our store and let us show it to you.
It's price you will find less than you are asked for machines half as good.
You need a sewing machine—every home does—but the average woman waits until a clever solicitor puts his foot in the door and tries to sell her one. She no doubt gets a fairly good machine, but she usually pays from $15 to $20 more than it ought to cost her.
Now instead of waiting for some doorbell ringing solicitor to sell you an expensive machine, why not buy one from us—get the best and save all the money? Call now and have us demonstrate our wonderful machine to you.

sential features today's two hour session of the stock exchange differed
only slightly from the preceding days of the week. Trading was a little more active in the first hour and sentiment was somewhat more hopeful
based in part on the more encouraging views of high authorities in the steel and iron trade and on over developments in the Mexican situation.
These factors were again neutralized
however, by further advices from abroad which pointed more definitely
to extreme financial tension in Paris and London. In fact the situation at Paris was referred to as calling for drastic action.

COLLEGE OF MUSIC NOTES.

Miss Alexander of Pennsylvania and Miss Nora Alexander of Belleville, who was formerly a pupil of Miss Beebe's spent several days with Miss Beebe at the college.

Miss Freda Fenton sang a solo at Centenary church and Miss Ima Berryman at Grace church last Sunday.

The ensemble classes gave a very interesting program Thursday afternoon.

The annual recital given by advanced pupils from intermediate grade of all departments will occur on Tuesday evening, May 26, at 7:30 p. m. The public is invited.

Mrs. Ella G. Swarthout is visiting her sons, Director and Associate Director Swarthout.

Mrs. Hartman spent the week end at the Corrington home.

Miss Beebe gave an interesting song recital before her pupils and a few invited guests on Wednesday evening. Her program was chosen from the works of the lesser of the contemporary American composers.

Miss Beebe has never been heard to greater advantage and her work was marked by distinct enunciation, clear flowing tone and artistic interpretation of the text. Miss Eloise Jacobs, who was the accompanist of the evening, gave an unusually sympathetic support to the singer. The program follows:

May Time ..... Anderson
Beware of the Hawk (National) ..... Herbert Dearest ..... Homer

Like the Rosebud ..... La Forge

CONSERVATORY NOTES.

The graduation recitals will be given on Tuesday and Thursday evening, May 26th and 28th, in Northminster church. On Tuesday evening the following students will take part: Marguerite Butler, Flossie Cox, Ruth Duncan, Nathalia Jensen (all candidates for teachers' certificate), and Sallie Harton (candidate for diploma). On Thursday evening Dean Cochran, Jessie Greer, Minnie Hoffman, Rebecca Scheibel (candidates for teachers' certificates), Louise Huddleston, Hazel Belle Long, Alice Phillips (candidates for diploma). The public are cordially invited to attend.

A students' recital, including students of Mrs. Bullard and Miss Jerould, will be given in Recital hall Friday evening, May 29th, at 8. Friends of the Conservatory and students are invited to attend.

For the performance of "Electra" which was given most successfully on the college campus last Tuesday afternoon, the music composed by Miss Carrie Dunlap for the play was an important factor in the artistic effect. The orchestra, under Mr. Kritch's direction, played the music smoothly and with spirit, and Rebecca Scheibel (the Electra), sang with thrilling dramatic intensity, any spoke of the excellence of both the music and its performance.

A students' recital was given Thursday evening, May 21st, in Recital hall, students of Mr. Kritch, Mrs. Wilson and Mr. Munger taking part in the program.

Miss Nathalia Jensen appeared in concert as violin soloists at Petersburg last Tuesday, May 19th, with great success.

The concert to be given by the Conservatory orchestra, under Mr. Kritch, will take place in State Street church on Tuesday evening, June 2nd. The orchestra will be assisted by the Singing club, under the direction of Mr. French, and the club will be assisted by members of the Illinois College chorus. The proceeds of the concert will be given to the Free Kindergarten.

WOMAN'S COLLEGE NOTES.

President Harker was the guest of the high school alumnae association of Ashland on Friday evening, where he gave the principal address at the annual banquet held by the association.

The Alumnae association of the college have just issued a most attractive bulletin, giving a complete record of all graduates of the institution as far as records could be obtained, with much valuable information about each one.

The college has just had made safe portable bleachers for use on the college grounds. This will be of especial value in the tennis tournament and the contests which will take place between the alumnae and the present students. Last year Miss Esse Summers won the silver cup and will be in the contest again this year. The rules of the contest are that if one person wins the cup for three successive years, it then becomes her property. A great many are trying out for the final test.

Visitors and parties of various kinds have been in order the last week. Every evening some of the classes or societies have been entertained either on the college campus or at homes in the city.

About 15 of the students attended the Greek play given under the auspices of the Classical club of Jacksonville.

At the request of the senior class, the students will have the communion service in chapel next Sunday morning. President Harker will be assisted by several of the local ministers. This service is always an impressive one and takes place the last Sunday before baccalaureate.

Closing sale of ladies suits this week. Every suit, half price, now reserved. See our big window display.

THE ILLIWOCO.

"The Illiwoco", the first annual ever published by the Illinois Woman's college has made its bow to the public. It is the work of the Junior class and is a most creditable production, speaking well of the executive ability of the energetic members of '15.

"The Illiwoco" contains an original photograph of Dr. J. R. Harker, a gift to the young ladies from Speith, the photographer, and to the president the book is dedicated with the following language: "To Dr. J. R. Harker, our president." "The preceptor whose wisdom has blessed the house and strengthened its foundations for all the years to come, we dedicate this, the first volume of Illiwoco."

The annual contains pictures of the faculty, the various classes, societies, athletic organizations, interior and exterior views of the college. On another page of the Journal will be seen a group picture of the staff of Illiwoco, also two group pictures of children, whose mothers are graduates of the Woman's college. The reading material is splendidly prepared and the numerous witticisms are well taken.

Miss Feril Hess and Dorothy Stevens did the sketching for the book and Charles Whitbee the decorations for several of the pictures. The Junior class found the book so popular that they could have sold one hundred more copies.

WOMAN'S SUFFRAGE

Women who suffer from those dreadful pains, headache, depression, irritability, nervousness and depression, symptoms of organic trouble, should rely on Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which is made from roots and herbs, to restore them to a normal healthy condition as it has thousands of other American women.—Adv.

MORTUARY

Shelkop.
Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Towers have received word announcing the death of Mat Shelkop, who passed away at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Tom O. Sims, 2417 Doniphan avenue, St. Joseph, Mo. Mr. Shelkop, who was employed as a carpenter for Swift & Co., at St. Joseph, was internally injured in an accident the day before his death, but details of the accident were not received in this city.

Matthew Shelkop was born in Belleville, Ill., November 5, 1845, and lived in this city a number of years before removing to St. Joseph. While here he was employed as a carriage blacksmith by a Mr. Vogel, who conducted a shop just south of Skinner's blacksmith shop on North Sandy street. Mr. Kellogg was not able to go to Iowa to attend the funeral.

After several weeks of intense suffering which he bravely endured, he bade all his family good-bye and was happy to go to rest.

Mr. Hoagland was a son of the late J. M. Hoagland, and Mrs. Sarah (Stevenson) Hoagland, was born July 21, 1876. He was converted and united with the Clark's Chapel church during the pastorate of the Rev. B. F. Drake. He was a member of Woodman Lodge No. 132, Mr. Hoagland was married to Sallie Culver of Fort Collins, Colo., and Mrs. Emma Vickery of Seattle, Washington, and his brothers, John C. of Caldwell, Idaho and William of Jerome, Idaho. This was followed by a toast of appreciation by the guest of honor.

1851—Walter Scott Rice—1914.
Hey Oh! There—my old brother dear You did not think from me to hear. The surprise I have heard about—Mighty nice not to be left out. Say! Do they think you're getting old.

It's a mistake. They're only bold And take this day to have a spree So that you cannot but agree. Of course—since everybody came, There's none on whom to lay the blame.

You just went out to see the deer, Came back again—and lo! They're here.

May twenty-third, eighteen-five-four To celebrate the full—thirty score, What have I said! Is it sure true? This makes three-score of years for you?

Let's leave the answer yet unsaid, For some are even on a head, And some must follow close your heel.

You're only old—as you do feel. Then shake your fist in old time's face.

And wave him back with modest grace. Grandfather Rice! Well now, look here.

They're just a bunch of little "dear" Go back as far as "seventy six" Was that a time to play fool tricks? If ever pride did hold full sway,

'Twas at that time and on that day When with a bran new wife to go, You started east, to see the show.

The guide book studied carefully. Wise! Wise! To know what all should see.

Well—let'em smile, if they want to, You did as well as they would do.

'Twas "nervy" tho, you'll now admit. And own right up—you two were "it."

They say it's your birthday once more. It means more now to say three-score.

Where are the years that have gone by, The record's been kept up in the sky.

"We'll meet again"—those there would say. A thousand years are as a day.

Then live well the present, fret not, Nor forget the only bright spot That can safely guide o're the bar

The beautiful Bethlehem Star. Love to all in this message I send With many good wishes—yours truly. The end.

A Vacation on a Ranch

this summer will do you more good than a barrel of medicine. Get out into the open, close to nature and have the time of your life. Rest relax and recreate. Ride over sun-flooded trails in the hills; row on silvery lakes; fish in shady brooks; tramp down winding paths among the trees; loaf in soft valleys of green; stroll in the moonlight; eat of the fat of the land and sleep like a babe. Such a vacation pays tremendous health dividends. You will come back feeling like a different person.

In the Black Hills of South Dakota, in the Big Horn Mountains of Wyoming, in the Buffalo Bill country, along the Road into Yellowstone Park, there are countless places where you can spend just such a vacation and at a very moderate cost. The Hot Springs (S. D.) team with life-giving and disease-curing qualities, while down at Thermopolis, in the Big Horn Basin of Wyoming, is a hot spring, the waters of which are as an anti-toxin to hundreds of ills that beset the human race.
